EVICTED FARGE

NOWHERE ELSE TO GO: Richard Smith with piles of his family's possessions after they were told they were being evicted

By LOUISE SASSOON, News Editor
sassoon@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A FAMILY coping with life-threatening illnesses were evicted from their temporary accommodation . . . only to be allowed to return a few hours later.

Richard Smith, who suffered a massive heart attack, and his wife Nicola, who is recovering from breast cancer, were told they would have to leave the Harlow Council-owned flat after it decided it did not have a duty to re-house them.

On Friday they were given just a few minutes notice they would have to go. But after pleading with housing officers and explaining they had nowhere else to live, the council relented and told the family they could stay in the flat until a review of their circumstances is completed.

The couple have been staying in the accommodation with their daughters Holly (14) and Rebecca (11) for the past six months after their home in Joyners Field, where they had lived for 25 years, was repossessed.

This week Mr Smith (54), who also suffers from diabetes, said he is disgusted by the council's actions. "We have been treated appallingly and the stress has been immense," he told the Star.

"They gave us no written notification of the eviction and now the children are nervous because they think the rug can be pulled out from under us again at a moment's notice."

Dad appalled by 'eviction'

"I have lived here all my life and never asked for help from the local authority and now we are being treated like this. I thought council accommodation was for people like us who have nowhere else to turn. This should act as a warning to other people in the town."

Mr Smith said he had used all the family's savings to pay the mortgage when both he and his wife were forced to stop work because of their illness.

They cannot afford to pay the deposit required by private landlords and although Mrs Smith is now back at work following her 2007 cancer diagnosis and subsequent mastectomy, her income will not cover rent and living costs.

Mr Smith is still on a cocktail of strong medication for his heart condition, which was diagnosed six years ago, and daily insulin injections for the diabetes.

The family does not qualify for an emergency loan because they are not on benefits.

Mr Smith said he would now request a personal hearing in front of a panel of three councillors because he believes a written review, which would allow housing officers to review their initial decision, would have a predetermined outcome.

A spokesman for Harlow Council said Mr and Mrs Smith had been given 28 days notice of eviction from the flat at Sherards Hatch, in Three Horse-shoes Road, and said they had made themselves intentionally homeless.

However, he added that a review was under way while the authority considers the implications of a court ruling about a similar case.

Tenants to lose rent rise relief?

THOUSANDS of council tenants in Harlow could lose out on a Government-sanctioned reduction in their annual rent increase after the town's Conservative administration proposed to opt out of the recession-busting initiative.

Plans to halve the average guideline rent increase from 6.2 per cent to 3.1 per cent were announced in March this year as part of a package of measures to tackle the economic downturn.

Local authorities across the UK were told they would be able to bid for subsidy to make up any resulting shortfall in rent income.

If applied in Harlow, the proposals would see the average rent increase for tenants drop from £5.03 to just £2.12. But the council estimated it would lose £420,000 a year if it agreed to sign up to

moss@hertsexnews.co.uk

the scheme and claimed Whitehall could give no assurances as to how much of this shortfall would be subsidised.

Council representatives held a meeting with officials at the Department for Communities and Local Government to request that the authority be treated as a special case because of its precarious financial position – a claim given short shrift by the department in the context of recent changes to Housing Revenue Account rules which will boost council coffers by £900,000.

The authority is one of only three in the country proposing to reject the Government guidelines.

Harlow MP Bill Rammell said this week he was appalled the council was refusing to help its tenants.

"Harlow Council always seems to have money to spend on things it wants to such as wheelie bins, despite claiming to be in dire financial straights," he told the Star. "Not relieving the rent burden on council tenants is a decision the Tories are choosing to make."

Mick Patrick, chairman of pressure group Harlow Defend Council Housing, said: "Times are hard for all of us and Harlow Council should be ashamed for not joining together with the vast majority of other local authorities to give a fair deal to council tenants."

However, Lee Dangerfield, chairman of the housing committee, said the matter was still open for discussion.

"The council has not rejected CLG's rent offer," he said. "We have only just received the letter from CLG and we are still considering its implications."

"We want to give our tenants rent increase reductions and have told CLG how we can do this but they have chosen not to accept our proposals."

Fire crews start industrial action over service cuts

FIREFIGHTERS in Harlow began industrial action yesterday (Wednesday) in protest at proposals to make cuts to frontline services across Essex.

Although fire crews are not on strike, they are refusing to work overtime, cover absences in more senior roles or turn up for work on their days off until the dispute between the Fire Brigades Union and Essex County Fire & Rescue Service is resolved.

Talks to avert the action altogether have so far ended in stalemate, although discussions between the two sides last Wednesday paved the way for further negotiations to get under way as the Star went to press.

The dispute stems from ECFRS plans to make efficiency savings in the wake of the recession. The FBU claims it could result in one in 10 frontline firefighters losing their jobs and would compromise the service.

The union has also criticised plans for a £5m upgrade of the computer system and the proposed purchase of a helicopter, claiming the money would be better spent on retaining frontline firefighters.

SCORES of children enjoyed some animal magic at the Harvey Centre when some of the inhabitants of a nearby zoo paid a visit.

Gary the bearded dragon, Squibb the skunk, some Madagascan cockroaches and an eagle owl proved popular with youngsters visiting the shopping centre on Friday.

Manager Bryan Young said: "We're always happy to see the staff and animals from Paradise Wildlife Park and introducing them to our customers."

A-nother year of celebration

By LOUISE SASSOON

News Editor

sassoona@hertsessexnews.co.uk

EMOTIONS ran high on A-level results days as hundreds of Harlow students found out their grades.

But, while there were many outstanding individual performances, the overall picture for the town showed that it is still not hitting the national benchmark of 97.5 per cent of students achieving A-Es.

Figures show 95 per cent of Harlow College students received an A-E in their exams – a rise of one one per cent on last year's results – while just 50 per cent passed at A-C, well below the national average of 75.1 per cent.

However, there were some encouraging signs as 16 of the college's A-level courses recorded a 100 per cent pass rate compared to 13 subjects last year.

College principal Colin Hindmarch said: "These are very reasonable results and are particularly satisfying because of the college's open access policy, offering A-level courses to students from a wide range of backgrounds.

"These include students who may not have realised their full potential whilst at school but who are now thriving in the more adult learning environment provided by the college.

"I am still encouraged by the success achieved by our A-level students. I know a huge amount of hard work has gone in to achieve these results."

Mr Hindmarch added that the AS-level results for the college were the best yet, with 84 per cent of students achieving an A-E – again up one per cent on last year – and 45 per cent achieving A-Cs, an eight per cent increase.

At St Mark's School in Tripton

Road, 94 per cent of A-level students gained A-E grades while 50 per cent achieved an A-C. The figures represent drops of two and five per cent on last year respectively.

Headteacher David Brunwin said: "These are very good results for this cohort, for their families and for Harlow in general.

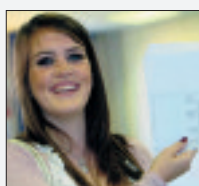

"Our sixth form draws from all secondary schools in Harlow and I extend my congratulations to these schools for their work in preparing students for post-16 success in exams. I am sure that they will share in this success.

"This year, with these results, will mean that 238 A-level students have left St Mark's and proceeded to university over the past five years. Ninety-one per cent of these students have been the first members of their families to achieve a place in higher education.

"This is a statistic of which we are immensely proud."

CHRIS MOSS talks to some students delighted with their results

MARY ASPINALL (18)
Grades: AAB

I have wanted to study medicine for years and since I was 15 I have set my heart on the University of Manchester. I can't wait, it's a lovely city. The thought of the debt terrifies me but I have wanted to become a paediatrician for so long that I'm just not going to think about it.

JAMES BENNEWITH (18)
Grades: BCD

I'm really pleased that I've managed to get into Bournemouth University to study law. I wasn't sure if I'd get in with these grades. I'm off out tonight to celebrate with my mates; it's a huge relief and I can relax now until university starts.

MATTHEW GODWIN (19)
Grades: AAB

I'm going to the University of Southampton to study English and I intend to do a Masters straight after. I've done a lot of research into what I'd like to do in the future and I've decided to stay in academia, either as a lecturer or a researcher.

Compared to my previous school, Harlow's approach suited me better. I liked the more adult atmosphere and the personal responsibility, I felt a lot more comfortable here. It's a better stepping stone to university.

Education is an investment, it's not a waste of money. By the time I complete my studies I hope that the economy will have picked up and I still intend to work part-time.

CHRISTINA BENTON (18)
Grades: BCD (at AS-level)

I'm so, so happy with these grades. I really thought I wouldn't do well enough to come back next year and complete my A-levels, so this is a huge relief. With the recession and the levels of unemployment at the moment, I was terrified I would have to go out and try to find a job but thankfully I can now look forward to finishing at college and hopefully going on to university next year.

ROBERTA MICCI (18)
Grades: EDD

To be honest, my results are better than I expected them to be and I'm really pleased to have got into Chester University to study advertising and marketing. Going to Harlow College has been a great experience for me; there's always someone there to help and support you if you're struggling and I owe the teaching staff so much.

Dog owners told to keep pets out of paddle pools

DOG owners will be ordered to leave the town's green spaces if their animals are seen wading in children's paddling pools.

The warning comes after six families were told by police and council officers to leave the Town Park for allowing their dogs to play in the water.

Tony Hall, chairman of Harlow Council's environment and community committee, said: "If a dog uses the paddling pool as a toilet is has to be drained, cleaned and re-filled which means that children will be disappointed."

"It's even worse if the fouling is not visible as it can cause serious illness."

"Most responsible parents would be horrified to think that people would allow a dog into a pool used by children. I would urge dog owners to think hard about how they would feel if a child was ill because they'd allowed their dog to use the pool."

Signs showing dogs are not allowed in the areas are clearly displayed near the pools and regular patrols are now taking place to prevent vandalism and other incidents of anti-social behaviour.

Graffiti cover-up for cable boxes

By LOUISE SASSOON, News Editor
sassoona@hertsessexnews.co.uk

TEAMS of residents are being asked to help keep Harlow clean in a new campaign which will hand them responsibility for looking after some of the town's graffiti hotspots.

Residents are being asked to 'adopt' street cable television cabinets – a popular target for vandals who spray them with their tags – and repaint them if they are defaced.

Every year Harlow Council spends thousands of pounds removing spray paint from dozens of the boxes, which are often in highly-visible public areas.

Now the council hopes the Adopt-A-Box scheme will smarten up the town and send a message to those responsible for the graffiti that it will be removed immediately.

Tony Hall, chairman of the environment and community committee, said: "Graffiti drags down the appearance of an area and has an affect on the feelings of people towards the town as a whole."

"Unfortunately our graffiti teams cannot be everywhere and so we want to enlist the help of the public in doing something about this problem."

The Adopt-A-Box scheme has been used in other areas by cable company Virgin Media which will supply the special anti-graffiti paint. The council will organise the repainting and contact people who have agreed to look after a box near their home.

For more information or to adopt a box in your area, call the community safety team on (01279) 446655.

Yasmin's pug picture is top dog

YOUNG Yasmin Harris and her pet pug Nancy are to become local stars after winning the chance to be featured in an advertising campaign for a Harlow veterinary surgery.

The pair will be featured on a DVD which is played in the waiting room of Companion Care, based in the Pets at Home store in Edinburgh Way.

Yasmin (7), of The Chantry,

Harlow, entered the vets' national Paint a Pet competition and won the Harlow heat. She received an art and craft pack for her painting of Nancy which she picked up from the store on Tuesday.

She will feature on the DVD with other heat winners and the national winner, Rebecca Wrench of Lancashire, who also won the chance to become dog trainer for the day.

CouncilWatch group to provide platform for residents' views

A GROUP of residents have set up an independent watchdog to keep an eye on council decision makers.

CouncilWatch is the brainchild of residents who want to keep tabs on the work of elected councillors and officers to make sure they are properly serving taxpayers by calling them to account for actions and policies.

Founder and group chairman Harry Harrison said: "I felt this was needed as there have been decisions made whereby people in the town don't feel as though they have been listened to. This is designed to give residents a voice and make them part of the decision-making process. That's what I call democracy."

The group's first meeting was held last week and it is hoped householders from all over the town will use future gatherings as informal talking shops where they can air their views and seek answers to their questions.

Mr Harrison, who lives at Great Parndon, added: "This will be a non-political, non-sectarian, informal committee in which anyone can take part and express their views freely."

"Quite obviously it will not be possible for either councillors or council employees to take an active part in this group as it could potentially lead to conflict of interest. There is, however, no reason or intention to prevent them from attending meetings as observers or by invitation in order to answer questions from members of the public."

The next meeting will be held in the Maidmore Room at the Great Parndon Community Association on Wednesday, September 9 at 7:30 pm. All residents are welcome.

Thieves steal rare vintage motorbike

A RARE vintage motorbike is at the centre of a police investigation after it was stolen following a full restoration.

The black BSA B31 was taken from Sheering in the early hours of Sunday, August 9.

PC Denise Coulson said: "The owner received the bike as an 18th birthday present from his dad around 26 years ago and he has only just got around to having it restored."

"The restoration was completed the day before the bike was stolen. The owner is understandably very upset as the bike has a great deal of sentimental value and we are keen to get it returned."

"I am concerned this bike may be used for parts."

Anyone with any information should contact PC Coulson on 0300 333 4444.

Rescue team makes water a safer place for all of us

ESTABLISHED 13 years ago, Herts Boat Rescue is a charitable organisation run by unpaid volunteers.

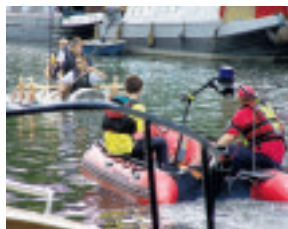

The service is entirely free of charge and promotes water safety in Hertfordshire and the surrounding borders.

Herts Boat Rescue works with all the agencies relating to water to make Hertfordshire's water a safer place.

A registered charity, Herts Boat Rescue saves lives directly and indirectly by providing water safety training in schools, clubs and at various events, as well as providing water rescue patrols on rivers and lakes, water safety patrols for events and swift water rescue when required.

Water rescue is also provided for the emergency services and dive operations when required.

Herts Boat Rescue started in 1996 as a breakaway group from Bishop's Stortford Lifesaving Club. With just a few hundred pounds and an unsinkable Dory 11 boat, a few members got the new organisation off the ground.

As the years went by, more volunteers joined the group and in 2000 Herts Boat Rescue got its first Lottery Grant to fund a frontline rescue boat.

Since then the fleet has grown and Herts Boat Rescue has been involved in numerous rescues, from helping motorists when their cars have become stranded in flood water to rescuing swans from tangled fishing lines and call outs to help homeowners following flooding.

There are four divisions working to save lives and promote water safety in the Herts Boat Rescue Team: water rescue, aquatic search and rescue, swift water rescue and the teaching team.

Services provided by Herts Boat Rescue include:

- Water safety training for children and public (free)
- Aquatic emergency assistance to the emergency services and public (free)
- Advanced life support training through the East of England Ambulance Service (members)
- Water rescue training and swan rescue training (members)
- RYA powerboat training (members)

Herts Boat Rescue needs £2,000 to keep running each year.

Mean-spirited Tories

SIR, I have been saddened by the actions of Conservative councillors on Harlow Council.

I suppose I shouldn't be surprised given the mean-spirited nature of this Tory bunch. However, with their attempts to sully the good name of councillor Lorna Spenceley and to link it to the tragedy of the Berecroft fire, they have sunk to a new low.

I spoke to councillor Spenceley when she told me she was moving and I am fully convinced she will continue to play a full part in the life of this town and to continue to give the people of Staple Tye excellent service until her term ends next May.

Since moving, she has attended her councillor's surgery and has dealt with many constituents' issues.

Lorna Spenceley has served this town with great distinction and it is very sad that the Tories cannot even now bring themselves to say thank you for the work she has done over the past 18 years.

They seem mainly motivated by jealousy and hatred. By their personal attacks on councillor Spenceley they have once again shown they are not fit to run this town.

Councillor Chris Millington
Civic Centre, Harlow

It's not Christmas

SIR, Bah humbug. So once again the Card Factory in the Harvey Centre seems to think that Christmas has come early (Star, August 27). I'm sorry but it hasn't.

The manager is quoted as saying that "our customers like to spread the cost of Christmas". Well they probably do,

Levy on credit unions is unfair

SIR, As a saver with the local credit union HarlowSave, I was horrified to hear that the levy being applied to deposit-takers regulated by the FSA to fund the recent bail out of the banking system includes the credit unions among those FSA members who have to pay it.

It seems ludicrous to me that credit unions, which are set up to provide access to credit and other services to the neediest people, are being charged for a banking failure to which they did not contribute, when they are built on a quite different structure.

In the current financial climate we need organisations like credit unions which help vulnerable people get reasonable access to credit on affordable terms.

We need to encourage the continuation of these bodies to avoid the human disasters created when people in desperate circumstances accept credit on any terms, however unreasonable, to solve their short-term problems while creating a far worse situation for themselves in the long term.

It seems totally wrong that a group of financial institutions which works on the basis of community spirit, sharing and supporting those in need, should be endangered and unfairly charged due to the mismanagement of a much wealthier group.

This demand will adversely affect the reserves of credit unions such as HarlowSave and the services that they can offer their customers and their communities.

They should not be involved in this levy, the first payment of which is due on September 1, with penalties due if payment is not made by that date. Urgent action is needed to ensure they are exempted from it.

Councillor Lorna Spenceley
Civic Centre, Harlow

but like most normal people they probably like to do that at Christmas and not in the middle of August when even now quite a few people are still going on their summer holidays.

I absolutely love Christmas time but I find this kind of retail selfish and, quite honestly, offensive. They are simply cashing in. How would it be if we all woke up tomorrow morning and went into town to find every single shop full of Christmas in August?

After a couple of months I would imagine that their staff will probably be sick and tired of Christmas and yet again younger children will now probably be thinking that Christmas is just around the corner, causing problems for their parents.

I have no doubt that a handful of people are already buying some of these cards, which in itself is very sad indeed and only fuels this type of retail. Still, here's to seeing the new batch of Valentines Day cards. November is not too far away.

Steve Wilson

Offer shorter leases

SIR, It is a shame there are so many empty shops in Harlow and great news that the Government have given the council a cash grant to inject new life into the town centre (Star, August 27). But I am not sure the answer is to open up the empty premises as meeting places and learning centres. The thing that will bring life to the town is more retail units.

And the reason that so many retail units in the town close down? When I moved to Harlow a few years ago I applied to the letting agents to open a new shop in the town. They were fairly unhelpful and could only offer a five-year lease with a pretty high annual rent.

Surely a one or two-year lease would be more appropriate for a new business. And, with this new injection of cash, rents could be made more appealing. Or is the council happy to continue being dinosaurs and follow its own agenda?

V. E. Mason
Morningsons, Harlow

Stop the rants

SIR, It would appear to me that instead of getting on with the job for which they were elected, some councillors spend more of their time in political manoeuvring than working for our town.

We hear day-on-day, week-on-week and year-on-year claptrap which, if they took the trouble to see, has no benefits whatsoever for the residents of Harlow.

Do they seriously think that this ranting and raving makes them look any bigger in our eyes? I think not. It is for self gratification and I have a few observations. First and foremost it may be a good idea to take these words from the good book: "Let those among you without sin cast the first stone."

It is also a duty of those working with and for the general public to learn diplomacy and humility instead of letting their mouths go in to high gear at least three weeks before their brains kick in. If their leaders can not keep them in line then it is about time that their leaders were changed. To all of you servants of the community I say this: shut up and get on with your job because by looking over your shoulder at others all the time you will surely bring yourself into disrepute which will serve no useful purpose to Harlow, its communities or residents whatsoever.

Why no toilets?

SIR, Last Wednesday was a beautiful day, perfect for the grandchildren in need of a paddling pool. Arriving at the Town Pool and in need of a toilet, what do we find - no toilets. How disgusting that people are using the wooded area; just think of all the diseases you can catch in the woods now.

Even at Pets Corner the toilets were padlocked. It's a disgrace that you cannot have a day out with children and there are no toilets.

When the adults need to go they have to pack up everything, drag the kids out of the water and march down to the Greyhound pub. And what do the disabled do? They also enjoy a day out in the park. Buck up your ideas Harlow; surely recycling doesn't go that far!

Jan James
Barn Mead, Harlow

We never learn

SIR, I don't see why Baby P's "real father", should be treated to a holiday (Star, August 13). He states that whenever he left him, Baby P would cry "Daddy, daddy, daddy". How could he have ignored that plea?

At any time during an access visit he could have taken his son to an A&E department and insisted on a thorough examination. He could have involved the local press until those who needed to be far more aware sat up and took notice.

The social workers share some of the blame, but so do the medical profession, health visitors and the police. You've only got to see that photo of Baby P, where his hair has fallen out from stress and he is covered in chocolate to hide the bruises, to know something is seriously amiss.

I'm no professional but it's painfully obvious to me. We hear the mantra "lessons must be learned" but, tragically, they never are.

Tenants' day of fun and advice

THERE was a chance for tenants of a housing association to unwind at a fun day during which they got the chance to talk about their concerns.

South Anglia Housing laid on a barbeque and other activities on Friday as part of a community engagement project.

Seminars for people keen to seek advice on anything from financial awareness to customer services were held during the six-hour event at the Latton Bush Centre in Southern Way, Harlow.

There was also an advice surgery for people to air their views and get questions answered.

Cash-strapped Hawks facing points penalty

THE financial crisis engulfing Harlow Town FC could see the club hit with a 10-point deduction.

Insolvency practitioners working on the company's behalf are currently drawing up plans for the club to reach a payback deal with creditors by entering a Company Voluntary Arrangement.

If agreed, the deal would see creditors given back up to 27 pence of every pound they invested in the club.

But it would also see the Ryman League Division One team hit with the points penalty for being in debt to the tune of £290,000. Of that, £95,000 is owed to Harlow Council and a further £40,000 to the taxman.

Information on the agreement was due to be sent to creditors by Hodgsons Chartered Accountants this week. A deadline for the deal to be agreed has yet to be set although it is thought the club could enter the CVA payback arrangements next month.

If so, it will mean a winding up petition instigated by HM Revenue and Customs to put the company into liquidation for outstanding tax debts will not be reheard as expected and the order will not be enforced.

By LOUISE SASSOON, News Editor
sassooni@hertsessexnews.co.uk

Hodgsons spokesman Steven Wiseglass, told the Star: "The club is proposing the CVA at the moment and when they enter into it they will be deducted the points."

"It is proposing to pay back creditors £100,000 over a five-year period. If the company went into liquidation they wouldn't get anything."

Mr Wiseglass added: "If the arrangement doesn't get approved there are not a lot of options available."

A spokesman for the Ryman League confirmed that no points would be deducted from the club until the CVA was agreed.

News that the club owed money to the taxman broke last month. A week later Carol Bothwell took over the club, a move which resulted in the resignation of the entire board, the manager, some players and a number of backroom staff.

Mrs Bothwell said she is determined to sort out the cashflow problems and is working on ways to raise revenue by holding boot sales, increasing lorry parking at the Barrows Farm stadium and selling breakfasts.

Conman admits deposit scam

A SECOND man who pocketed deposits paid by prospective tenants for a house in Old Harlow has admitted charges of fraud.

Brian Jacques (45), of Gibb Croft, Harlow, was due to stand trial at Chelmsford Crown Court on Monday but the court was told he had changed his plea to guilty.

He admitted two offences of fraud on April 3, 2008 in relation to making a false representation to two women that the property was available for rent.

His co-accused, Jason Knox (39), has already been jailed for four months for three offences of making a false representation over the property in St Edmunds Way.

The court heard the two men advertised the house for rent but never intended to let it and instead kept the deposits.

But the pair were arrested after a number of people complained to police after they were unable to make contact with the men who had taken their money.

Stephen Rose, prosecuting, said Knox was the major player and had over £3,000 on him when he was arrested.

Veronica Reeve, representing Jacques, said in mitigation he had acted stupidly and impulsively in the hope he might get some building work out of it.

"He was not the main offender and not the planner of this fraud," she added.

The judge adjourned sentence until September 18 for reports.

Granddaughter's disco fundraiser for Tube tribute

A MEMORIAL to the victims of a wartime tragedy at a London Underground station could be one step closer thanks in part to the granddaughter of a survivor.

Louisa Tyrer (80) managed to escape a huge crowd surge at Bethnal Green station in 1943 which claimed the lives of 173 people.

Now her life-long wish to see a roll of honour for those who died could be fulfilled after her granddaughter, Emma Mckie (32) of Upper Mealines, Harlow, decided to organise a charity disco to raise cash for a memorial.

"I decided I wanted to do something to help after I went along with my grandmother to an exhibition at Bethnal Green Library," said Emma, who is being helped by her sister Nichola and cousin Kirstie Robinson.

"It was held by the founder of The Stairwell to Heaven Memorial Trust which raises awareness about the disaster. "My grandmother lost her youngest sister and father in the tragedy. It would be really nice for her to see something that will honour her family in her lifetime."

By SOPHIE WARNER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

Disaster struck on March 3 when a crowd of people entered the tube station in anticipation of another night of Blitz bombing during the Second World War.

After hearing an anti-aircraft battery in Victoria Park, the crowd suddenly surged forward in panic. A woman at the bottom carrying a baby tripped and fell, causing a domino effect.

Some 173 men, women and children died and more than 90 were injured in what was the worst civilian disaster of the Second World War.

Mrs Tyrer, who was 12 at the time of the tragedy, remembers being pushed against a wall in the melee.

The Stairwell to Heaven Memorial Trust already has planning permission for a memorial and needs to raise a sum of £100,000 before they can apply for Lottery funding to build the sculpture which consists of 19 bronze steps.

The disco, which will be held in the hall at Holy Cross School in Traces Road, Harlow, on October 31, will include a bar, raffle and a prize for the best Halloween costume.

Tickets costing £4 for adults and £2 for children are available from Emma on 07720 886895.

Active sportsman appointed as new chairman of hospital trust

A NEW chairman has been appointed to lead the Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust.

Gerald Coteman, pictured left, has extensive public sector experience in health care and currently sits on the board of Cambridge Building Society and Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Sports Partnerships. He lives in Cambridge with his wife, Elizabeth, who is a partner in the family business.

Mr Coteman is an active sportsman who has represented Cambridgeshire at table tennis and cricket.

He said: "I am immensely pleased and privileged to have this opportunity to work towards improving the health of people in west Essex."

"I am looking forward to taking on this new challenge and working alongside colleagues at the hospital trust and strategic health authority."

"Working with the local community and its representatives, I believe we can make a significant and lasting impact on health and wellbeing over the next five years."

Hospital trust chief executive Chris Pocklington said: "Gerald will be a great asset in helping us to achieve our vision to become the best general hospital in the east of England."

● HOSPITAL authorities are inviting residents to hear about plans for the future delivery of health services.

The first talk will be held on Monday, September 21 at the Civic Centre in the Water Gardens where discussions will include combating hospital acquired infections and innovations in breast cancer treatment.

The second will be held the following Wednesday, September 30, at the Rhodes Centre in South Road, Bishop's Stortford, and will cover emergency care and maternity services.

Drug runner caught with £2k of cocaine

A MAN who acted as a go-between for two drug dealers in Harlow has been jailed for three-and-a-half years after he was caught with more than £2,000 worth of cocaine.

Judge Charles Gratwicke told John Mallia (55), of The Hornbeams, Harlow: "Drugs lead to degradation, addiction and death to people who become addicted."

Chelmsford Crown Court heard on Friday that Mallia was seen by police as he was driving in Southern Way, Harlow, in the early hours of April 17 last year.

Rufus D'Cruz, prosecuting, said the car stopped and the officers approached the driver, who they identified as Mallia, to ask him for his insurance details.

He went to a nearby house for the document but was unable to find it.

One of the officers then went back to the car and spotted the drugs. Mallia was taken back to the vehicle and flicked a wrap of cocaine under the seat.

He was taken to Harlow police station where, the court was told, a sandwich bag containing a further 20-25 wraps was found on the floor of the vehicle near a shoe which Mallia had taken off. A further wrap was also discovered along with £610.

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsexnews.co.uk

The value of the drugs recovered was £2,619.

Mallia pleaded guilty to possessing cocaine with intent to supply.

James Howard, representing the defending, said in mitigation his client was suffering from both AIDS and lymphoma and 12 years ago had been given just two years to live.

However, he had been treated with a "cocktail" of drugs which had helped him to survive.

Mr Howard said Mallia had become addicted to cocaine but had received a "natural detox" after contracting meningitis which put him into hospital for a considerable period.

In relation to the offence, Mr Howard said Mallia had received two wraps of cocaine for his role as a runner. "Although he had been a runner between two drug dealers to feed his own habit, he had not been involved in anything where money was changing hands," he added.

Burial park a site of natural beauty

ANOTHER beauty spot in the Star patch has been awarded Green Flag status.

Epping Forest Burial Park, in Kiln Road, North Weald, has been given the accolade for the second year running after impressing judges with its outstanding natural beauty.

Epping Forest District Council chairwoman Penny Smith joined workers at the site to raise the flag on Monday.

The announcement comes just two weeks after Parndon Wood Nature Reserve in Harlow was awarded Green Flag status, which recognises high standards of environmental awareness and customer care in green spaces across England and Wales.

Pictured helping Mrs Smith to fly the flag are Epping Forest Burial Park managing director Nick Taylor and marketing manager Steve Norris.

'Cold call' alert follows a spate of complaints

HOUSEHOLDERS are being warned to be wary of cold callers following a number of incidents in the Harlow area.

Essex County Council's trading standards unit has received several complaints from people who have received unsolicited telephone calls from traders offering to install security systems in their homes.

The caller claims to be affiliated to the police.

Those who have expressed an interest in the systems have then been visited by a salesperson but by then the prices first quoted over the telephone have risen steeply.

Tracey Chapman, Essex County Council's cabinet member for environment and waste, said: "I am urging residents to be especially vigilant at this time and to ensure that elderly relatives and neighbours are not at risk.

"Rogue traders will often use high pressure sales techniques, so please be wary and don't agree to anything you are not completely happy with."

Anyone concerned about an unsolicited telephone call should contact their local neighbourhood policing team or call Consumer Direct on 0845 404 0506.

Sparks fly as energy firm pulls the plug

HUNDREDS of households will be left without power for more than eight hours today (Thursday) while maintenance work is carried out on a sub-station.

EDF Energy will switch off the electricity supply to 251 homes in the Tendring Road area of Harlow between 8.30am and 5pm in order to allow engineers to upgrade the low voltage network.

By CHRIS MOSS

mossc@hertssexnews.co.uk

Letters were sent to every household last week, suggesting residents arrange back-up power if required and offering tips on how best to keep food stored in fridges and freezers.

But some residents have criticised the firm for not offering to supply generators to provide temporary power to their homes while the work is carried out.

One angry householder told the Star: "I can understand that EDF need to do work on the network from time to time but they should at least provide generators for people who rely on power throughout the day.

"I work from home and my business is going to suffer as a result of this. Why should I have to fork out for a generator to provide cover for the electricity I pay for every month?"

Another added: "This is the hottest time of the year, so to be unable to use our fridge and freezer for a whole day is simply unacceptable.

"What about elderly residents who rely on having a phone available for emergencies? EDF should at least provide some sort of back-up for people who really need it."

An EDF spokeswoman apologised for the inconvenience but stressed that the work was essential to ensure the area had a reliable power supply in the future.

"We encourage customers who rely on power to arrange back-up supplies such as a generator for times like this," she added. "Unfortunately, we are unable to provide generators to customers affected by planned interruptions."

Star publisher plans new property website

ILIFFE News and Media, publisher of the Star, is joining forces with two other independent regional press groups to commission one of the world's leading property portal developers to produce a new level of online property website.

The company, along with Midlands News Association and the Baylis Media Group, has engaged world-renowned technology providers Collabera to deliver a web offering for estate agents and homehunters which will match and better the major national property sites.

A launch is planned for early 2010 and it is being developed with the capability to allow other regional press groups to also take the service.

David Fordham, chief executive of Iliffe News and Media, said: "This is an exciting development that we genuinely believe will provide our estate agents with a truly competitive alternative to the likes of Rightmove."

Family tribute to dad killed in road smash

THE family of a man killed when his motorbike collided with a car has this week paid a moving tribute to him.

Kitchen fitter Denroy Dixon (45), of Burley Hill, Harlow, died when the black Yamaha he was riding was in collision with a Mitsubishi car in Stanford Rivers, Ongar.

The 72-year-old woman who was travelling in the rear of the car was also killed in the crash which happened last Sunday afternoon (August 16).

In a statement released through the police, Mr Dixon's family said: "Denroy was a caring father, a loving son and a protective brother, a man who put his family first.

"He was very outgoing and charismatic and showed strong abilities and accomplishments within many other areas.

"Denroy was both an enthusiastic and accomplished motorcyclist with some 15 years of riding experience. Those who knew him realised that this, with his love of music, was one of his true passions in life.

"He inspired loyalty in those around him and gave it back in return. He will be truly missed."

Mr Dixon is survived by his five children, two sisters and his parents who live in Jamaica.

Police are appealing for witnesses to the tragedy to call Chigwell Road Policing Unit on 0300 333 4444.

● A TEENAGER who died after a lorry overturned and crushed

DENROY DIXON

her car on the A414 at North Weald has been named.

Nicola Saxton (19), of South Woodham Ferrers, was driving her grey Ford Ka in the direction of Chelmsford when the accident happened last Monday (August 17).

The lorry also collided with a Skoda Fabia.

Miss Saxton was cut free from the wreckage and taken to Harlow's Princess Alexandra Hospital where she was pronounced dead.

The driver of the Skoda, a 64-year-old man from Chelmsford, was taken to PAH for treatment to a wrist injury.

The 54-year-old lorry driver was arrested on suspicion of death by dangerous driving and has been released on bail to return to Harlow Police Station on October 13.

Anyone with information is asked to call Chigwell Road Policing Unit on 0300 333 4444.

Nursing and Midwifery... Amazing!

Journalist Eleanor Patmore, who lives in Felmongers, Harlow, has reported on swine flu but here she reveals how nothing could have prepared her for a week of hell that started with a headache ...

Forget all those jokes, swine flu is a real pig!

WE'VE all heard the terrible jokes doing the rounds about swine flu.

Over the past week I have heard plenty of them – and can say from personal experience that it is no laughing matter.

If you are unlucky enough to catch swine flu then you can expect to feel truly dreadful: confined to bed, suffering from hot and cold sweats and too weak to lift even the TV remote control.

I am rarely ill and was feeling as fit as a fiddle until I woke up last Saturday feeling as though I had been hit by a bus.

As well as a banging headache and fuzzy throat, every single muscle – including the ones I didn't realise I had – was screaming. My whole body was pounding.

By the end of the day every part of me hurt and even rearranging the pillows was painful.

When it was first suggested I might have the dreaded swine flu I did not want to believe I had succumbed, but a quick check on the NHS Direct website confirmed my fears.

I called the swine flu hotline. The operator fired off a list of symptoms and possible ailments, including unconsciousness. Obviously I wasn't, seeing as I was able to answer all his questions, but I guess he was just being thorough.

Satisfied that I ticked enough boxes, he agreed I had suspected swine flu – the NHS has stopped testing people – and issued me with a reference number to collect my Tamiflu prescription.

By the time I had gone through this rigmarole my nearest collection point, at St Margaret's Hospital in Epping, was closed for the day, so I suffered through the first night on just two measly paracetamol.

Sufferers are supposed to stay in isolation and avoid visiting their doctor or pharmacy for fear of spreading the disease, so the following morning my parents were duly dispatched to collect the drugs.

On their return I was slightly alarmed to learn that the side effects of taking Tamiflu are vomiting and hallucinations, so it was with some trepidation that I popped my first pill.

Within an hour I was rushing to the toilet to be sick and over the coming days I experienced a queasiness after every tablet.

I have since heard stories of other swine flu sufferers foregoing Tamiflu in favour of aspirin and paracetamol, which makes me wonder whether the cure can be worse than the illness.

One of the worst side-effects of swine flu is what it does to other people. On the first night, my husband came home from work wearing a face mask and went into a frenzy of wiping every surface and door knob with antibacterial spray.

He then decamped to the spare bedroom for the week, while a cuddle was out of the question. His avoidance tactics appear to have been prudent as so far he has not displayed so much as a sniffle; however, when you're poorly and in need of a little sympathy, it is not particularly nice to be treated as if you have the plague!

By the middle of the week the Tamiflu had started to kick in and although I was starting to feel a bit better, I was exhausted.

It is not much fun being stuck indoors when even changing the television channel wipes you out, while a quick trip to Tesco to restock on soup on Friday (the first time I had left the house in seven days) knocked me out for two hours.

A weekend that I should have spent celebrating a friend's 30th birthday was a washout and was instead spent curled up on the sofa watching more DVDs.

It has been 10 days since I first felt under the weather and although I'm no longer contagious I'm still bunged up with a sore throat.

They say for those who catch swine flu this winter it will be a lot worse so maybe I should count myself lucky that I won't be among those poor souls. They will certainly have my sympathy.

My advice for anyone who thinks they may have the symptoms is to call the National Pandemic Flu Service on 0800 1 513 100. It's better to be safe than sorry.

Keep an eye on the sun!

YOU and your friends probably think it's cool to wear sunglasses to shade your eyes from the glare of the sun, but did you know you are also protecting them from damage?

Most of you will have been told by your parents that you need to slap on the sunscreen to keep your skin from burning before going out to play, but it is just as important to protect your eyes.

A recent survey carried out by experts at the Royal College of Optometrists (eye doctors) revealed that while three-quarters of parents make sure their children are wearing sunscreen, only a quarter make them put on sunglasses.

Children's eyes can be damaged beyond repair by harmful ultraviolet rays if they don't wear sunglasses in bright sunlight.

The survey found that three out of 10 parents never buy sunglasses for their children, and many of those who do worry more about how much they cost than how well they protect the eyes.

A spokesperson for the college said: "Sunglasses don't need to be expensive to offer good protection but it is important for parents to check that the pair they buy carry a CE mark."

People with light coloured eyes are most at risk from sun damage and those with blue eyes should always wear sunglasses in bright sunlight, they added.

Family affair

Eve worked for electronics firm Cossor and so did her father, brother, sister, sister-in-law and nephew. And that's where she met her husband

TIGHT-knit communities are usually the preserve of small villages and towns. But while the sprawling expanse of Harlow might have looked imposing come the 1960s, many of its residents still held onto the 'old town' way of life.

There is no better example of that culture than the one which arrives from reader Eve Bailey, who has written to Nostalgia with her memories of electronics firm Cossor.

For Eve, working at Cossor was very much a family affair. Her father, brother, sister, nephew, sister-in-law and future husband were all employed at the company.

By LOUISE SASSOON
News Editor
sassoonl@hertsessexnews.co.uk

"Dad was relocated from Cossor Highbury to Harlow in 1958," she writes. "When we first came to look around Harlow we went to the Cossor site at the Pinnacles and it was completely empty. There was nothing in the factory area, it was just one big empty space."

"We came to Harlow on September 13, 1958 when I was 13. Dad was the first person there as he was in the Site Plant Engineering Department and helped to set the place up."

"I joined Cossor in 1967 as a temp in the sales huts located where the car park is now located at the front of the factory on Barrows Road."

"I met my husband in 1969 at Cossor whilst building the company's carnival float. He had joined in 1965 as a student engineering apprentice."

"My father retired from the company in 1985 and I retired in 2004 following a brief break which saw me leave the company in 1982 and then rejoin."

"My brother, Tony, is still there and although he had previous service has been there this time since 2000. "My sister Jean, son David and sister-in-law Pat have all worked at Cossor, so it was, and still is, quite a family affair."

Can you put names to the faces of Harlow's Civil Defence team?

FOLLOWING on from recent items about Harlow's Civil Defence, we have now received this photograph showing the team of volunteers.

It was taken outside St Paul's Church in the town centre in either 1954 or 1955. The man on the far right is believed to be the CD leader.

Do you recognise anybody or have memories of being in this picture when it was taken? If so contact Nostalgia in the usual fashion.

ROW OVER REFUSE ROUTES

Householders are furious that many dustbins are not being emptied because of new refuse routes. The changes came after Harlow Council decided to cut the refuse crews from six to four earlier this month.

ANGER AT MARKET ATTACK

A magazine article attacking the management of Harlow market has angered councillors. The two-page story in Markets claims there are irregularities in the way the market is run.

AIRGUN ALARM AT STATION

British Rail has warned children to stay away from railways after an incident at Harlow Town Station when a group of youths pointed an airgun at a train. Moments later a carriage window shattered.

STRIKES OVER SACKED MANAGER

Union members at Harlow Town Hall began selective strikes in a bid to get a sacked computer manager reinstated. The worker was fired for lending a computer to a neighbouring authority without permission.

HARLOW COLLEGE: A group of students enjoyed success at an international festival of sport and music in Harlow's twin town of Velizy. The students took part in two football matches against local teams and played in a multi-national music concert in Velizy's new theatre.

The international audience consisting of French, German and Portuguese nationals reacted with enthusiasm to the Harlow musicians who brought the crowd to its feet with applause.

Student and bass player Sam Whitbread (18), pictured above, said: "The experience of playing in such a big venue was fantastic and the experience will remain with me for a long time."

The college trip was organised by Mo Messaoud, Harlow College's enrichment officer. The French organisers were so impressed with the Harlow students that they have extended an invitation for the college to visit again next year. (s)

RUM TUM TUGGERS

NURSERY: Children were visited by the long arm of the law when they were given an insight into the job of a police officer.

The children were taken in groups of four to look inside a patrol car and test out the sirens before they had a chance to try on a uniform.

Officers then talked to the children about what was on their belts, handcuffs and the various modes of transport police use while on patrol.

FAWBERT AND BARNARD: The success and service of the school's longest serving governor was celebrated at the Year 6 leavers assembly during which staff and pupils said goodbye to those children who are moving on to secondary schools.

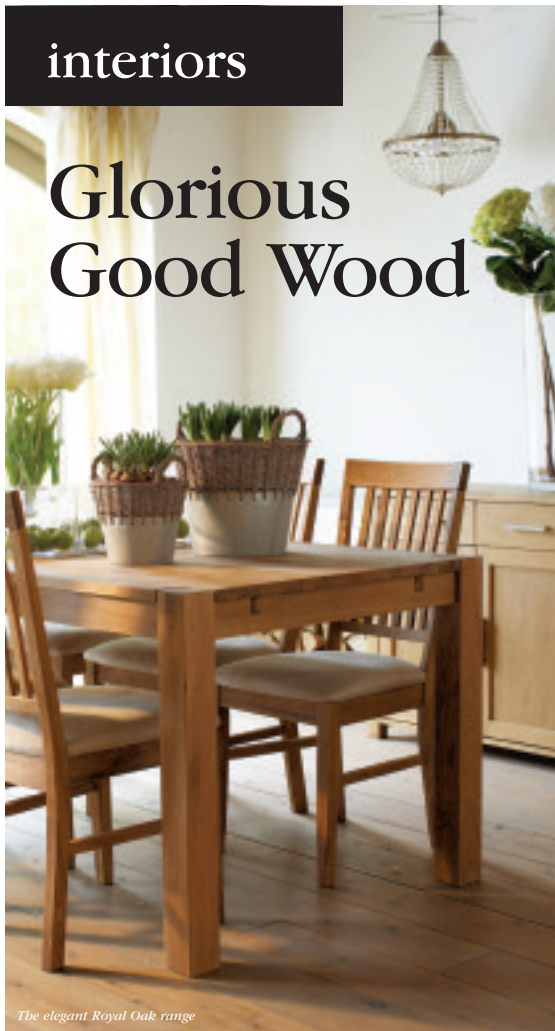

Sandra Newens has given 40 years of dedicated service to the young people of Harlow as governor at three Harlow schools – Fawbert & Barnard, Harlowbury and Mark Hall.

She has also served on the governing body of Harlow College, is closely involved with the Harlow Education Consortium and takes an active role in her support of Child Poverty Action.

Mrs Newens was presented with a cut glass vase and a bouquet of flowers during the assembly. She is pictured, centre right, with headteacher Pav Saunders and children from the school's seven year groups. (s)

Glorious Good Wood

The elegant Royal Oak range

Havana - Simple yet beautiful

From the aubergine coloured richness of Mango to the blonde, bronze and harvest tints of British Oak, wood brings with it a riot of sensual colour, pattern and texture and a warmth that invites the hand to touch and the eye to linger. It's a material that's played its part in more or less every furniture movement the world has seen and continues to do so today.

Because the raw material is capable of creating many shapes and delicate detail, it's limited only by the imagination of the craftsmen who fashion it. So we can have the clean-lined style of the mango wood Java dining table and the lovely sweeping curves of the classic French arts and crafts Toledo bed with its complementary rattan foot and headboards. The warm expansive look of the Havana bedroom comes from plantation grown and recycled timber creating a simple shape that invites us to relax.

A key change in the way we respond to its use has been how we grow and manage the forests which give us the raw materials for our furniture. As the world has become more understanding of the impact of deforestation, our attitudes and practices have evolved accordingly to suit environmental needs not just personal taste.

Fishpools is conscious of the global need to take a responsible approach to the production and management of forestation issues. We are striving to source some of our collections from well-managed and constantly re-stocked plantations that also provide work and education for the local population. Nearer to home the Forestry Commission ensures that the European woods used by the manufacturers whose products we stock are also managed to continue to be available in abundance.

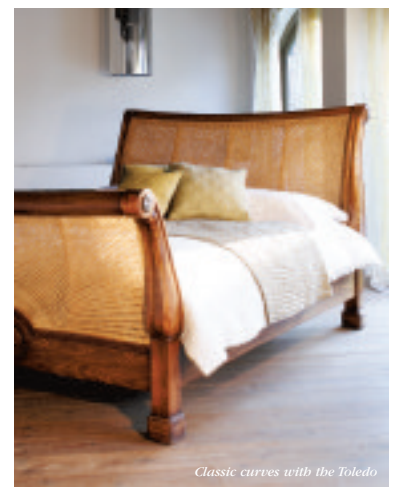

So visit our store to see for yourself just how versatile and pleasing wood can be. You're in for a feast for the eyes, hands and soul.

BURNT MILL SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC*

BURNT MILL provides academic excellence in a caring community where learning counts and people matter. The school is characterised by a dedicated governing body, well qualified staff, impressive levels of achievement and opportunity, an excellent partnership with parents and a commitment to high standards of behaviour.

We are proud to be a Specialist College of Performing Arts, with Ofsted commenting on our 'first rate performing arts productions.' Our dynamic, innovative curriculum and impressive range of extra-curricular activities ensures that all students remain engaged, challenged and motivated throughout their unique 'learning journey'. This has led to the Ofsted comment that: 'the level of enjoyment seen in lessons and around the school is high'. Ofsted also described the tracking of academic progress as good and that in the very best lessons the use of assessment is outstanding. In 2008 our 5+A*- C GCSEs including English and Mathematics was 37 %, significantly above the Government target of 30%, and those achieving higher grades including functional English and Mathematics was 58%. We also received certification from the SSAT to recognise the fact that our 5 + A*- C results including English and Mathematics have improved year on year between 2005 and 2008 by ten percentage points or more. We stood at joint 21st out of the 153 schools listed as making this kind of improvement.

Most importantly, students are proud of our school; it is where 'student voice' really makes a difference. This pride has been reflected in the acquisition of national awards such as the Healthy Schools Award, Artsmark Gold Award, The International School Award, Sportsmark, Silver Eco Schools, Effective Partnership with Parents Award and we are members of the National Association for Gifted and Talented Children.

MARK HALL SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC*

We are a forward looking school with traditional values, developing the learners of today for the ever changing world of the future.

At Mark Hall School we believe that it is our purpose to create an environment where everyone is empowered to grow and develop as responsible citizens and lifelong learners. We are committed to developing the range of skills, knowledge, attitudes and understanding, of all members of our community. In practice this means that we aim to model and develop:

- Positive attitudes, dignity and respect for all
- Caring and supportive working environment for all
- High aspirations for all our learners
- A school which is safe, fair and honest
- A shared responsibility for learning with all our partners
- Engagement and enjoyment in all aspects of learning, leading to high achievement and personal success

The achievement of excellence in all that we do is at the heart of the school. Our positive partnerships, with parents and carers, promote the value of learning and ensure that all members of the community are respected and encouraged to make a positive contribution. We encourage all people to use their talents with pride and seek to improve in all that they do to realise their dreams and aspirations. We believe this to be true for students and staff alike.

Students, parents and inspectors tell us that they are pleased with the direction that the school is going in and are supportive of 'what we are about'.

OFSTED commented in this year's report that recent actions are having a "dramatic impact in raising the quality of teaching"

"Significant progress had been made thanks to the determination and strong strategic direction of a good Headteacher" OFSTED 2009

As a Specialist Sports College we have invested in a state of the art Sports Centre that has considerably extended the learning facilities for all of the community. This has allowed the school to offer an increasing range of activities, including specialised coaching and pathways into accredited clubs within the community. The diversity of the curriculum ensures that we engage all learners and create pathways to learning that promote achievement and success. The Sports College has been instrumental in driving forward this diverse experience for all the young people at Mark Hall.

This is an exciting time for you as parents and carers, but also for all the young people as they move from one phase of learning and education to another. It is important to us that you feel that we have the best interests of you and your family at the forefront of our work as a school community. We are excited to welcome you into our learning community where your child's learning today will make them a success in the world they will shape for tomorrow.

Every Child Every Chance Every Day

PASSMORES SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC*

Ofsted said that "Passmores School provides an outstanding education for its students. As a result, the progress they make in their academic work is outstanding." We are very proud of becoming the first school in Harlow to receive the top grade of 'Outstanding' from Ofsted and strive each day to 'Improve Upon Our Best'. We are a dynamic, forward-thinking centre of learning. Here the traditional values of self-discipline, good manners, hard work and respect are the foundation of all the school does. Passmores is passionate about learning. It offers the highest priority to teaching that excites, motivates and challenges all young people in a caring atmosphere, where achievement is valued and celebrated. All students are challenged to develop new skills, knowledge and understanding across all subjects. They develop greater confidence and self-esteem as they become independent learners and are given increased responsibility. We work equally hard with all students, with our able, gifted and talented programme being recognised for the quality it offers.

Passmores' designation as a Specialist School for Technology recognises excellence in science, mathematics, ICT, and design and technology. This has brought considerable investment in 'cutting edge' technology, which is used to make learning fun and to maximize attainment in all areas of learning. Although it specialises in technology, Passmores has an excellent reputation for the breadth and quality of its curriculum provision and we have been asked to support other schools in the development of their curriculum. Our innovative pastoral system makes Passmores a very different place to the norm, with students learning the importance of respecting and supporting each other.

Passmores aims to provide a 21st Century education to meet the needs and aspirations of all young people and we are delighted that we will be moving to our brand new £25 million school building, situated on the corner of the A414 and Southern Way, in September 2011. This will offer the young people unprecedented facilities and opportunities to further extend their learning. We have an amazing chance to take our school to the next level and look forward to sharing this with our new students.

ST MARK'S WEST ESSEX CATHOLIC SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC

St Mark's West Essex Catholic school serves the needs of young people in Harlow and Epping from Catholic backgrounds as well as practising members of other faiths. Close to the town centre, St Mark's provides continuing education from 11 to 18 years.

With a warm and friendly atmosphere, St Mark's offers an education based on Gospel values where high standards of achievement, behaviour and uniform are expected and accepted by all. Pupils achieve excellent results, with achievement above the National Average at both Key Stages 3 and 4; successful post-16 courses ensure clear progression routes for all pupils at 16, 17 and 18-plus. A purpose-built Sixth Form centre, a learning resources centre, and a planned Sixth Form extension building (to be completed in June, 2010) support the learning of over 270 Year 12 and 13 students taking A/S, Applied and A2 courses. Just over 300 students have received offers of places at university in the past 5 years.

St Mark's was designated a Business and Enterprise Specialist School in September, 2004, and offers a broad and balanced curriculum where challenge and enterprise and work-related learning encourage achievement. A specialist Business and Enterprise Centre was opened by the Secretary of State for Education and Skills in September 2005.

In the past five years, St Mark's has been listed in the 'Most Improved' top 100 schools for KS4 achievement on three occasions. With dedicated and hard-working staff who serve and care for your children, St Mark's remains a first choice school. In November, 2006, the Ofsted inspection team began their report with ... 'St Mark's is a good school. It is a place where everyone is welcome.'

STEWARDS SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC*

"STEWARDS School is a good school with outstanding features where every child matters a great deal." This is the opening line of Stewards' 2007 OFSTED Report which recognises the many positive features of the school. "Pupils achieve well as a result of excellent care, guidance and support systems allied to good teaching" where "the majority of lessons are good or outstanding."

Inspectors reported that "pupils are excellent ambassadors for their school, reflecting their outstanding personal and social development.... Their enjoyment of school is exceptional."

In 2009 the school was the first in Essex to achieve the Cultural Diversity Quality Standard Gold Award and in her report the assessor wrote:

"Students at Stewards demonstrate a secure sense of identity, self belief and self respect. They are confident, content, courteous and generous."

These comments reflect the importance that is placed at Stewards both on academic success and on developing pupils to become confident young people able to make a positive contribution to society.

Stewards is a Science Specialist School and considers itself to be in the forefront of innovative development in all areas of the curriculum with a strong focus on providing exciting and challenging lessons for all pupils. Stewards has received awards from the Specialist Schools Trust in recognition of the exceptional progress made by pupils during their secondary education, with Stewards placed in the top 5% of schools nationally between 2006 - 2008.

Stewards' partnership with pupils, parents and the community encourages excellence in all aspects of school life and this is evident when visitors come to Stewards. Pupils have a wealth of opportunities to take responsibility and to extend their learning. Stewards has received national awards such as the International Award, the Healthy Schools Award, Artsmark Silver, the Education Extra Distinction Award and the Sportsmark Extension Award in recognition of the broad programme of out of hours activities, clubs and trips available to pupils.

The facilities at Stewards are first class and further development is carried out each year. At Stewards you will find excellent ICT facilities, Science laboratories, a PE centre and swimming pool, modern technology rooms and a Performing Arts suite housed in bright and welcoming surroundings.

is the name for the new 6th Form Centre opening in September 2009 which is being run by all the schools in conjunction with Harlow College. In effect all Harlow schools featured in this advertisement now offer educational provision from ages 11-18

Michael's brush with stardom in top show

By CHRIS MOSS

moss@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

THE stage is set for a former student of Harlow's longest-established performing arts school to dazzle the West End after being chosen to star in hit musical Hairspray.

Michael Kent (21), pictured right, is hoping to be the latest in a string of former pupils from The Brenda Taylor School of Dance & Performing Arts to carve out a successful professional career in the Theatreland spotlight.

He will join the cast of Shaftesbury Theatre's smash-hit show as Fender on October 26 and has also been chosen as understudy to the lead male role of Link, the character played by Hollywood heartthrob Zac Efron in the recent movie version of the musical.

The thrilled former Passmores pupil told the Star: "I did a total of nine auditions in Cologne and London for the show and all were in front of the original Broadway creative team.

"They kept asking me back, and I found out a week after my 21st birthday that I had been cast in the show, so that was an amazing belated birthday present!"

Michael, who lived with his family in Greygoose Park before moving to London, won a full scholarship to the world-renowned Laine Theatre Arts College in Epsom, Surrey and made a name for himself starring alongside Jonathan Wilkes and Robbie Williams in Stoke on Trent pantomime Aladdin.

His part in Hairspray will be his first time on the West End stage and his biggest role yet, but Michael said his excitement at being chosen has kept the nerves at bay.

"I'm so excited to be making my West End debut in such a fantastic musical, and understudying Link is the icing on the cake. I'm absolutely thrilled!"

Showcase starts ballet company's golden year

A SUMMER showcase of dazzling dance and beguiling ballet awaits audiences on Saturday as Harlow Ballet Association gets its 50th anniversary celebrations off to a spectacular start in the Playhouse Studio.

The varied programme will include a welcome revival of artistic director Michael Branwell's Capriccio Italian – set to the music of Tchaikovsky – and the 22nd competition for the Anthony Osborne Choreographic Shield featuring 11 entries from talented youngsters aged between 11-18.

"This is one of the most amazing sets of choreographic items we have had for years," said Mr Branwell. "I would hate to have to choose the winner!"

"The dance numbers are so varied in style and content that it's hard to pick the most outstanding. The only thing they all have in common is that they are entertaining."

There will be two performances of the programme – which will also include several routines choreographed during the school's summer workshop – on the day, with the matinee starting at 3pm and the evening show beginning at 7.30pm.

Focus then turns to the school's rich heritage on Bank Holiday Monday when loyal patrons of the association's shows are invited to join dancers and tutors past and present to celebrate its 50th birthday.

The day of festivities will take place at Moot Hall in The Stow and begins at 11am with a class taken by co-founder Leo Kersley followed by a buffet lunch and a chance to exchange fond memories.

Photographs of performances from the past will also be on view, with DVDs of selected shows available to order.

● For new students (aged from three upwards), Harlow Ballet Association is offering a half-price ballet class to Star readers to celebrate the school's 50th anniversary. ## new this week

FUNNY PEOPLE
certificate 12, time 2h25m

THE title of Judd Apatow's follow-up to The 40-Year-Old Virgin and Knocked Up isn't supposed to be ironic. What could be more perfect for a film immersed in the world of stand-up and its neurotic performers than Funny People?

However, there's nothing remotely funny ha-ha about Apatow's third feature behind the camera. The warmth he lavished upon characters in his earlier work deserts him, as does the deft touch for dialogue.

Funny People is a coming of middle-age story about a lonely, embittered man gifted a second chance at life.

Stand-up comic turned film actor George Simmons (Adam Sandler) has a string of box office successes to his name. But routine visit to the doctor culminates in shocking news: George has a rare and inoperable form of leukaemia and has only a slim chance of beating the disease.

So he prepares for his final days and hires wet-behind-the-ears performer Ira Wright (Seth Rogen) to pen him gags for some forthcoming corporate events. The relationship blossoms into something approaching friendship.

When the doctors joyfully tell George that his body has miraculously defeated the disease, the funny man is faced with exciting choices about the path of his life... and they all lead to old flame Laura (Leslie Mann) who is now happily settled with two daughters and a macho Australian husband, Clarke (Eric Bana).

Funny People is a bore, pitching haphazardly for laughs at the expense of plausibility. There's no way that George would hire Ira, based on his disastrous performance late one night, and we're perplexed why Laura would ever have fallen in love with such a schmuck.

Ira's romantic subplot with wannabe stand-up Daisy (Aubrey Plaza) is tepid, cheapened by the rivalry with cocky room-mate Mark (Jason Schwartzman).

Apatow peppers scenes with cameos from real-life stand-ups including Andy Dick, Charles Fleischer, Norm MacDonald, Paul Reiser and Sarah Silverman. However, British audiences will struggle to recognise half of these performers playing themselves.

Cheating death for the final time

THE FINAL DESTINATION
certificate 15, time 1h21m

DEATH stalks another group of hapless teenagers in the fourth and potentially last in the Final Destination series. But this time the dismemberment is in eye-popping 3D.

Nick O'Bannon (Bobby Campo) is enjoying a day of racing at the local car track when he suffers a horrific premonition of a pile-up which causes debris to shoot into the crowd, killing his girlfriend Lori (Shantel Van Santen) and friends Janet (Haley Webb) and Hunt (Nick Zano).

Nick also glimpses his own death, crushed by the stand as it collapses on top of him. Shaken by his waking dream, he persuades the group to leave shortly before his terrifying vision comes true and the teenagers thank him for their miraculous escape. But as the survivors of the disaster are killed in the order they would have died that fateful day, Nick and his pals must workout how to cheat death's grisly design.

still showing

INGLOURIOUS BASTERDS

Quentin Tarantino's long-mooted war opus is a blood-soaked fairytale set in Nazi-occupied France, divided into five hefty chapters. He plays loose and fast with historical fact, and splices genres to dizzying effect across its over-long two-and-a-half hours, with Christoph Waltz providing an Oscar-worthy supporting performance as a sadistic German officer and Brad Pitt plotting to kill the upper echelons of the Third Reich.

THE TIME TRAVELER'S WIFE

Unfolding over the course of 35 years, The Time Traveler's Wife recounts a heartbreaking romance between two people, one of whom suffers from random fits of time travelling, who were always destined to meet and fall in love. Rachel McAdams and Eric Bana star in director Robert Schwentke's faithful adaptation of the bestselling book by Audrey Niffenegger.

BANDSLAM Jumping on the bandwagon to attract the pre-teen High School Musical crowd, this film charts the fortunes of a group of high-school misfits who seek glory in their local battle of the bands.

THE UGLY TRUTH A romantically challenged morning show producer (Katherine Heigl) is reluctantly embroiled in a series of outrageous tests by her chauvinistic correspondent (Gerard Butler) to prove his theories on relationships and help her find love.

GI JOE: THE RISE OF COBRA

An elite military unit known as G.I. Joe, comprised of special operatives, operating out of The Pit, takes on an evil organisation led by a notorious arms dealer.

ALIENS IN THE ATTIC

Adventure/comedy about kids on a family holiday who must fight off an attack by knee-high alien invaders with world-destroying ambitions while at the same time doing their best to keep their parents in the dark about the battle upstairs.

G-FORCE (2D) Light-hearted mix of live action and digital trickery which follows a team of guinea pigs recruited to covertly fight terrorism.

HARRY POTTER AND THE HALF-BLOOD PRINCE The boy wizard and his friends face their toughest test yet.

ICE AGE 3: DAWN OF THE DINOSAURS Sid the sloth is taken to a dangerous subterranean kingdom after stealing dinosaur eggs and his loyal friends begin a rescue mission.

kids club

CORALINE There's no place like home as Coraline moves into the Pink Palace Apartments with her writer mother and father. To stave off boredom, Coraline explores her creaky, new home and uncovers a secret door leading from the living room to a parallel reality called Other World.

NIGHT AT THE MUSEUM 2 Ben Stiller and Ricky Gervais return for a sequel set in the Smithsonian Institute in Washington DC where revived pharaoh Khamunrah aims to take over the world.

preview

(500) DAYS OF SUMMER Offbeat romantic comedy about a woman (Zooey Deschanel) who does not believe true love exists, and the young man (Joseph Gordon-Levitt) who falls for her.

New Scenic joins its big brother

RENAULT'S five-seat New Scenic has arrived at Harlow dealership E J Darlington, joining its bigger brother the seven-seat New Grand Scenic.

Renault has long been at the forefront of MPV design and has updated its ever-popular Scenic to give it the same looks as the rest of the range.

The New Scenic range starts at £13,595, meaning it is attractively priced with high levels of equipment unmatched by other family cars in this segment.

These include 4 x 15W radio CD

MP3, air conditioning, ESP, front and rear curtain airbags and Tuneport for portable music players.

And customers can choose such extras as 18in alloy wheels, Arkamys audio system six CD changer with Bluetooth, integrated Carminat TomTom®, 3D full-colour DVD sat nav, electric panoramic sunroof and bi-xenon headlights.

For even better value, owners of cars registered before August 1999 qualify for the Government scrappage scheme, which means there's £2,000 towards the purchase of a new car or van when the old vehicle is scrapped.

There are 28 versions of New Scenic across five trim levels and eight engines at launch, ensuring there is something for everyone. New Scenic also offers some of the lowest CO2 emissions in its class, with both versions of the award-winning 1.5 dCi engine (86hp and 106hp) adhering to Renault's eco system, which means cars are ecological and economical.

Despite the price being lower than the previous incarnation of the Scenic, the New Scenic oozes quality. Families will appreciate the clever storage solutions coupled with class-leading rear legroom and massive luggage space – when the seats are folded flat there's an incredible 1,837 litres of space.

New Scenic also showcases new technology such as the integrated and affordable Carminat TomTom® sat nav, Renault's first rear parking camera and ingenious adaptable headrests for all of the seats, which can be folded on either side to follow the shape of an occupant's head for added comfort and support on long journeys.

Gary Hollinshead, sales manager at E J Darlington, said: "We're thrilled to have the New Scenic in the showroom, hot on the heels of its larger sibling. With exceptional levels of equipment, it's fantastic value for money at a time when many families are watching their budget."

"The Scenic is the iconic family car and still leads the way in the class that it came to define back in 1996."

For more information about the New Scenic and the Renault range, visit E J Darlington in River Way or call (01279) 439631.

Small but perfectly formed

THE second generation Ford Ka takes a less controversial route than the original version. For all that, it may prove to be just as successful. JONATHAN CROUCH reports.

BIGGER but not too big, faster but not too fast, plusher but not too plush – Ford's Ka citycar treads a fine line in second-generation guise.

Fortunately, it has a huge bank of customers loyal from the first-generation version to fall back on if all else fails. There's a more efficient petrol engine on offer, plus a diesel for the first time. The Ka was a car that Ford was very hesitant to replace – and you can see why.

This citycar has the highest loyalty levels of any product thanks to a 12-year production run for the first-generation model and an iconic shape that if you loved, you really loved.

Nearly one and a half million examples have been sold, half a million of those in the UK, where the car has been the citycar segment leader since 2000.

The MK2 model doesn't really have its predecessor's love-it-or-hate-it Marmite appeal, but it's unquestionably a better car. Ford has developed it as a joint venture with Fiat, so this model rolls off the same production lines in Tychy, Poland as the more daringly-styled Fiat 500, sharing its engines and the same platform design.

The original Ka was renowned for its go-kart-like handling and its replacement has been designed to be just as fun and rewarding to drive, with what Ford claims are the most exciting driving dynamics of any small car.

The company's chassis engineering experts have tuned the suspension, steering and chassis with their usual meticulous attention to detail, and final testing was conducted using a combination of public roads, proving grounds and race tracks – including the legendary Nürburgring in Germany.

During the engineering process, information was exchanged with the team developing the larger Fiesta, and certain components, such as the tyres, were jointly developed for both models. The 1.2-litre 69PS Duratec petrol engine is a huge improvement on the wheezy old petrol 1.3 used in the old Ka, while the 75PS 1.3-litre Duratorq TDCi turbodiesel is a good option for those likely to cover larger mileages.

You might mistake this Ka as a shrunken version of the Fiesta supermini from the outside, but inside it's very much its own car – and much more avant garde, with what Ford likes to call a 'kinetic' design philosophy.

Bold contrasts and expressive colours have been deliberately chosen to reflect the more adventurous tastes of the typical Ka customer. These are combined with some imaginative design details to give the interior a fashionable and fun personality which, Fiat 500 apart, is pretty unique in the citycar segment.

One thing that the old Ka wasn't was roomy and practical. The second-generation car isn't huge, of course (there's only so much you can do with a bodyshell this small), but it is a huge improvement.

There's surprisingly generous interior space and comfortable accommodation for four adults and their belongings, though acceptable rear-seat legroom will depend on the front-seat passengers not resembling basketball players. The high seating position, carefully placed controls and excellent visibility should make this Ka easy to drive for owners of all ages.

heated seats, invaluable for safe and comfortable driving in cold winter conditions.

A citycar like this has to be both cheap to run and kind to the environment and, of course, Ford loudly proclaims this Ka to be both.

Of the two economical, low-emission engines on offer, the vast majority of sales will be of the 1.2-litre 69PS Duratec petrol unit, which has cut fuel consumption by 21 per cent compared with the previous 1.3-litre Ka.

With this in mind, it's hard to see too many Ka customers being able to cover mileages great enough to make the savings that would justify the premium being asked for the 1.3-litre 75 PS Duratorq TDCi turbodiesel. Still, the TDCi's combined fuel consumption figure of 67.2mpg is tempting and would be more so if Ford could better it with an ECONetic version. Both petrol and diesel models are available with sub-120g/km CO<sub>2</sub> emissions.

This Ka may not quite have the cheeky spirit of the original version, but it does have all the tools necessary to retain Ford's leadership in the UK citycar segment.

Some previous owners would doubtless have preferred it if this model, like its predecessor, had been more of its own car and less of a shrunken Fiesta. Yet, for many others, a shrunken, more affordable Fiesta with a dash of extra flair inside is exactly what they're looking for.

Both however, may be satisfied as Ford gradually develops the Ka model range. It will be interesting to see what's in store.

And safety? Well, at the heart of the vehicle is a tough bodyshell which has been developed to provide a strong, stable crash structure to protect passengers in case of an accident. This has been combined with an Intelligent Protection System (IPS), which integrates airbags, restraint systems and seating technologies to provide what Ford claims is a highly effective occupant safety system.

Buyers choose between four trim levels: Studio, Style, Style+ and Zetec, plus there are various option packs to consider. Specify the Bluetooth-enabled connectivity kit and the Ka comes equipped with Bluetooth mobile phone connectivity, a USB port to play music files through the sound system and steering wheel controls. Combine this with the six-speaker CD sound systems on offer and owners should have all the necessary equipment to keep passengers connected and entertained.

Unique among vehicles in the small-car segment, this Ka also offers heated windscreen and Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Friendly victories encourage club's director of rugby

THE performances of Harlow Rugby Club's two teams in pre-season friendlies has encouraged director of rugby Lee Harron. Harlow's first team defeated Blackheath Academy 22-7 while the 2nd XV overcame Bancrofts' first team 20-15.

A large turnout of players meant it was possible to rotate players and positions in each of the four quarters of the games.

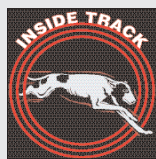

"It was a good step in the right direction," said Harron. "I was very pleased with our defence against a young adventurous Blackheath side.

"I was also pleased with aspects of our defensive lineup and scrum. We showed courage trying some new things that Pete Claridge and Francis Brown have been working on with players in training."

He added: "I was pleased we managed to create a number of scoring opportunities but need to continue working hard over the next few weeks turning these chances into points. "We had a number of colts involved during Saturday's game. The young half back partnership of Sam Gregory and Danny Smith have a bright future, along with James Lewis who held his own in the pack."

Harlow face Woodford away on Saturday in another pre-season friendly.

Debut pair get off to promising start

Welcome to Inside Track, our column that gives you the reader an insight into Harlow Greyhound Stadium as our top tipster reveals his favourites for tomorrow (Friday, August 28).

SWIFT LORNA made her debut over the stayers trip last week and, if that run was anything to go by, she will provide a profitable spell for her supporters. A slow start was followed by severe trouble at the first bend and she looked to have her work cut out to beat any of her rivals home. To her credit, she stuck to the task and finished second. With anything like a clear run, she will bolt up this Friday night and warrant maximum stakes.

BAGGIES BOY confirmed the promise shown in his trials with a gallant performance on his debut last week. After a very slow start he displayed eye-catching pace to get into a challenging position but eventually lost out to a more experienced rival. With natural improvement almost certain to follow, he can land his first success at 9.30pm.

Selections for Friday, August 28

Defeat ends hopes of going up

ANY hope Harlow had of promotion ended when they lost at home to second-placed Shenfield.

Both teams had players missing but Harlow did not bat well enough after being set a target of 192 to win.

James Butler, Harlow's first team skipper, said: "It is a pity but we still want to go for third spot. We have still had a good number of wins which in another year may have been enough."

"We bowled well enough against Shenfield but did not bat well in the middle order."

Shenfield batted first and Harlow claimed a good wicket when the much-vaunted Arshad Ali

Harlow 166, Shenfield 191-8 (Harlow lost by 25 runs)

Essex Shepherd Neame League, division two went for 19, leaving the visitors on 23-1.

However, a valuable second wicket stand of 71 between Jamie Wilton and Elliott Richter (43) plus useful late order knocks from Ryan Lugg (36) and James Kliber (22) gave the visitors a competitive score of 191-8.

Maruf Chowdhury (3-81), bowling off spinners rather than his quicker stuff because of an injury, and Zap Nazir (3-21) were Harlow's most successful bowlers.

In reply, the hosts were up against it after slipping to 5-2. Jason McNally joined Rehman Ahmed and the pair added 54 for the third wicket before the former made 17 and although Ahmed made an assured 53, Harlow struggled.

Valiant innings came from James Butler (21 not out) and Nazir (25) but it was not enough as they were bowled out for 166.

Saturday also saw Harlow seconds (203; Nino Calvino 78) relegated from the second XI division one championship after losing at Ardleigh Green (221-6) by 18 runs.

James Butler said: "Ryan Jessey (the skipper) has worked very hard with the seconds but they have played in a tough league and it will be good for them to be in a league where they can enjoy winning games."

In division one of the 3rd XI championship, Harlow (177) lost to Chingford thirds (193) by 16 runs.

● HARLOW (162) beat Sawbridgeworth (129) by 33 runs in a 20/20 game played on Tuesday. For a full report, visit www.harlowstar.co.uk/sport.

Hawks slip up against 10-man Bar

THE Hawks struggled to show any authority as they slipped to defeat against 10-man Potters Bar Town, writes David Rimmer.

The home side had striker Jordan Watson sent off after 76 minutes of Saturday's game for raising his hands at Harlow's Ola Akinawoo.

Four minutes earlier, the same Bar player was booked for a foul on Harlow substitute Daryl Doolan.

Trailing 1-0 at the time, Harlow were unable to conjure an equaliser with the extra man.

Hawks boss Anthony Anstead said: "We showed some urgency in the last 10 minutes but we need to show it for 90 minutes."

"We created hardly anything and that is a concern and we did not show any heart."

Potters Bar Town 1 Harlow Town 0

Ryman League, division one north

Defenders Liam Thomas (ankle injury) and Marc Clary (groin injury) were ruled out so Anstead drafted in 17-year-old central Damien Green and right back Jeffery Imudia, who was on Southampton's books.

Hawks keeper James Waite saved smartly to keep out a shot from Luke Croll on three minutes following a cross from the left, before the hosts scored the game's sole goal eight minutes later.

A Croll corner from the left was flicked on by David Iwedino from just inside the box and Watson pounced to fire home.

"He should not have been given he space he was," Anstead said afterwards.

Bar's Dennis Paratusic and Harlow's Julian Edwards then had goals ruled out for offside from free-kicks on 20 and 22 minutes.

Outstanding skill from Bar's Ashley Harrison-Barker saw him slip past three Harlow players before his 20-yard goal-bound shot was tipped over brilliantly by Waite on 35 minutes.

Hawks midfielder Jason Mason was booked on 55 minutes and the visitors missed a golden opportunity when Doolan broke down the left but his cross was diverted past the far post from close range by Julian Edwards on 70 minutes.

HARLOW TOWN: Waite, Imudia, Green, G Edwards, Clemo, Akinawoo, Edgerley (Ositola, 80), Manangu (Doolan, 60), J Edwards, Mason, Simpson (Dobson, 45). Subs not used: Beckles, Osei

Town pushing for a hat-trick of promotions

HARLOW Town Cricket Club could complete a remarkable treble promotion and championship winning season in the Herts and Essex Cricket League this Saturday.

The third team became the second side after the first team to win a title when they won the division seven championship by picking up enough points from a 72-run defeat to Nazeing Common II.

The second team face Bengoe seconds away in a winner-takes-all match in two days for the division four title.

Set 186 to win (Ron Morley 42no), Town IIIs slumped to 113 all out but picked up enough bonus points to secure top spot and promotion to Division 6.

Harlow Town IIs (147; Nick Teale 38) won by 34 runs against Braughing (113; Jack Elston 4-21, Oli Souter 2-16).

Victory against second placed Bengoe will give them the league title while six bonus points will be enough for promotion.

Town's first team showed their dominance with an easy eight wicket win versus basement side High Beach.

Beach were dismissed for just 128 with Shane Hooper and Ramaya Upadhyay doing the damage with the ball, taking four wickets apiece.

In reply, Town lost two early wickets but Shiraz Ali (76 not out) and Upadhyay (36 not out) guided Town to victory.

● HARLOW Town has its annual president's day this Sunday. The presidents team is led by Saffron Walden skipper Neil Gladwin and includes Halstead's Mark Johnson and Bishop's Stortford and Minor Counties player Steve Coleman. The game starts at 1pm.

Athletes star in county triumph

SIX local athletes helped Essex win the Eastern Inter Counties title for the third consecutive year.

In the high jump, All England Schools champion Billy Falconer (16) came in at the opening height of 1.85m and then cleared heights of 1.90m and 1.95m to win the title.

In the javelin, Tom Richards (16) failed to register a mark in three throws with his own javelin but then borrowed one and launched a fine 50.83m on his final throw. In the B hammer he finished with a personal best 26.04m.

Senior Glen Paxman was second in the B string 400m (51.49s) and then ran a great first leg in the 4x400 metres relay in which Essex were second.

Sophie Fuhr (15) was second in the B 400m (60.9s). She also ran legs for both relays (4x100 and 4x400).

Daniel Yaxley (16) was second in the 1.5k steeplechase (4m 50s) and less than 10 minutes later he ran the first leg in the 4x400m relay.

Tom Larkin (16) helped both 4x100m and 4x400m relay teams win and was fifth in the B 200m (24.2s).

Osagie may now be out of the running

THE chances of Andrew Osagie competing in the 800m race at the Aviva Great Britain international meeting at Gateshead next Monday seem to be fading.

The Harlow Athletic Club member needed to win an 800m race at Eltham, South East London, last Wednesday but he finished second.

Osagie finished in 1m 47.8s behind close rival Darren St Clair (1m 47.2s) and will now need somebody to drop out if he is to make next Monday's high-profile race.

Bowen's unlucky break

HARLOW-based rider Luke Bowen will miss Rye House Rockets' next two premier league matches after breaking his hand in a freak accident.

Bowen had claimed eight points in Rockets' 57-35 victory over Somerset Rebels at Hoddesdon on Saturday night when he sustained the injury.

He was just about to get off his bike riding back to the pits when he caught the side of his hand on an upright metal pole holding up the roof.

Initially Bowen thought nothing of it and joined in the post-match celebrations with his team-mates, nursing a sore hand.

Rockets promoter Len Silver told the Star: "When he woke up the following morning his hand was like a balloon."

"The swelling was so bad he had to go to hospital and the X-rays revealed he had broken a metacarpal in his right hand."

"It's now in plaster and he will be out for a couple of weeks, but maybe more if it's not a straightforward break."

Rockets will now use rider replacement for their fixtures against Stoke tomorrow and the return match at Hoddesdon on Bank Holiday Monday.

Harlow Town 0
Wingate & Finchley 2
(Ryman League, division one north)

THE Hawks have a fight on the field as they seek to make up for the problems off it, writes David Rimmer.

Harlow Town could face a 10-point deduction due to financial problems but on the pitch the fans will be hoping the team can soon find the form to end the current losing streak.

After an encouraging opening day victory over Great Wakering Rovers, the Hawks have suffered three consecutive defeats, the third coming when their 10-man side lost at home to Wingate and Finchley on Tuesday. Debutant midfielder Herve Malimabue, who had a strong game, was sent off in the 90th minute for lashing out at Wingate's Craig Ellis, who was also booked for the initial foul.

The Hawks were subsequently awarded a free-kick and there were four yellow cards, including two for substitute forward Gavin Taylor and midfielder James Edgerley.

Afterwards, Hawks' boss Anthony Anstead was philosophical about the possible points deduction but not about the red card for Malimabue.

"We have to deal with what happens with the points if they are deducted but at the moment they have not been," he said.

"Their guy simulated as if he had been hit in the face, Herve put his arm and body against his midriff. It was a wrong decision."

As well as bringing in Malimabue, Anstead employed Michael Pelley in mid-field while keeper Jamie Waite retained the captaincy for the second game after Marc Clarey's injury.

But it was Waite's careless clearance which almost cost Harlow on seven minutes when Chris Chase's 40-yard lob hit the crossbar.

Wingate took the lead 12 minutes later. Harlow's weakness at defending set pieces resulted in Michael Lenihan's corner finding Frank Weer beyond the back post and he nodded across for Ellis to head home.

On 45 minutes a quick Wingate counter ended with Leon Smith teeing up Leon Nelson to lob the advancing Waite.

Harlow improved after the break and should have halved the deficit on 60 minutes but Julian Edwards shot lamely at Gavin King.

On 90 minutes Smith fired against the bar and from the ensuing fracas Malimabue was sent off and Ellis was booked.

Anstead added: "We gave away two soft goals and must work at defending set pieces and improving our attack. We have not scored in three games."

HARLOW TOWN: Waite, Imudia, Green, Clemo, Akinnawo, Malimabue (sent off 90), Pelley (Dobson, 81), Atu (Doolan, 45), Edwards (Taylor, 70), Mason, Edgerley. Subs not used: Beckles, Ositola. Attendance 137
